Welcome Message

Following its successful launch in 2005, iPOP has established itself as the prestigious conference on IP + Optical network technologies. We are pleased to announce iPOP 2008 which will be held at NTT Musashino R&D center, Tokyo, Japan, June 5-6 2008.

The conference, the fourth annual event in its series, brings together those working in this important field from the industry and academia. The event is intended to promote the exchange of ideas, sharing of the knowledge and findings, and experience in the state-of-the-art IP and Optical Networking technologies. We encourage you to make plans to join the iPOP 2008.

We look forward to seeing you in Tokyo at iPOP2008 in June.
